

Module Specification:

CIM Level 3 Award in Marketing Principles (VRQ)

Marketing Principles is a 12-credit mandatory module which sits within the suite of Level 3 modules.

Marketing Principles is common to both CIM Level 3 Foundation Certificate qualifications. To gain the CIM Level 3 Foundation Certificate in Professional Marketing, a pass in both Marketing Principles and Communications in Practice is required.

To gain the CIM Level 3 Foundation Certificate in Professional Digital Marketing, a pass in Marketing Principles and Digital Fundamentals is required.

If studied as a standalone module, the CIM Level 3 Award in Marketing Principles (VRQ) can be achieved.

Aim of the module

This module provides an understanding of the key concepts and terminology used in marketing. On completion of the module, you will have a knowledge and understanding of the role and function of marketing within organisations, and the factors that influence consumer behaviour. You will also be able to identify key components of the marketing environment and have an appreciation of how to collect and utilise relevant information about the marketing environment. Finally, you will be able to outline the concepts and elements which make up the marketing mix and understand how these are applied in a range of different contexts.

Module structure

The module comprises three units with two learning outcomes each. Each learning outcome will be covered by the related assessment criteria and will be assessed by way of online examination. The online examination will comprise multiple-choice questions to be completed in a controlled assessment.

The learning outcomes and assessment criteria, together with the indicative content, are detailed in the Marketing Principles module content which follows.
