

CIM Qualifications Specification

Level 6 Qualification Specification:

CIM Level 6 Specialist Award in AI Marketing

Contents

About CIM	3
The CIM Global Professional Marketing Framework	4
Specialist Awards	5
Module Aim	5
Qualification Structure	5
Module Purpose	5
Module Content	6
Credits, Total Qualification Time (TQT), Guided Learning Hours (GLH)	9
Assessment	10
Grading	10
Entry Requirements	11
Accessibility & Inclusion	11
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Exemptions	12
Membership	12
Command Verbs	13

About CIM

CIM is an Ofqual regulated provider and our qualifications are also accredited by the European Marketing Confederation. We currently have over 12,500 studying members in 118 countries and 18,000+ assessments are taken by our students every year.

Our qualifications are delivered through an international network of Accredited Study Centres, enabling you to learn in a way that suits your lifestyle - from flexible awards to full qualifications.

Each module is based on the CIM Global Professional Marketing Framework. Our unique framework is designed to help marketers meet the increasing demands that are expected of them at every stage in their career.

Over 100 years of supporting, developing & representing marketers

12,500+ current studying members

The CIM Global Professional Marketing Framework

DIRECTION: Developing capability by design for understanding & context.
CAPABILITY: Knowledge & abilities to deliver against the plan.
PROFESSIONALISM: The way we work.
IMPACT: The benefits to us, our business, the economy & society.

Specialist Awards

The CIM Level 6 Specialist Awards have been developed for Marketing managers and marketers working in operational and supervisory roles, who are looking to progress their strategic and management skills. Successful completion of a Specialist Award will equip the student with the knowledge, skills and understanding to support decision making within a digital context at an operational level and carry out an essential and successful professional marketing role within the workplace. These Specialist Awards provide marketers with focused knowledge and expertise in specific areas of digital marketing while at the same time fitting in with either current career goals, CPD or areas of interest within the Digital marketing sphere. These qualifications are designed to enhance skills, improve career prospects, and demonstrate a high level of proficiency in a particular marketing area.

Module Aim

As AI technology continues to advance at a rapid pace, this module will enable you to respond effectively to developments and understand their application to marketing. It provides strategic insights to the impact of AI within the business environment and the resources required to implement AI technologies. Candidates will gain the knowledge and skills for suitable planning to respond to AI developments.

Qualification Structure

Qualification Sizes:

Qualification Title	Size
CIM Level 6 Specialist Award in AI Marketing	10 Credits
	(100 TQT)
	(80 GLH)

Module Purpose

This module develops the knowledge of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the development of skills to enable a strategic approach to its use in marketing. It covers three key areas: the first area develops knowledge in the application of AI within marketing, including key concepts and benefits, the second area covers the impact of AI within the wider organisational environment and ethical considerations; the final area explores how to create an effective plan to respond to AI developments.

Module Content

LEARNING OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT CRITERIA	INDICATIVE CONTENT
1. Identify the application of AI within marketing.	1.1 Define the key concepts of AI.	<ul> <li>Machine learning (e.g. supervised and unsupervised, deep learning)</li> <li>Neural networks</li> <li>Natural language processing</li> </ul>
	1.2 Explain how data contributes to A.I	<ul> <li>4Vs (volume, velocity, variety, veracity)</li> <li>Types of data-         <ul> <li>Structured</li> <li>Unstructured</li> <li>Metadata</li> </ul> </li> <li>Algorithms</li> <li>Importance of quality data</li> </ul>
	1.3 Analyse the benefits of Al.	<ul> <li>Managing resources</li> <li>Capabilities</li> <li>Enhancing customer journey touchpoints</li> <li>Competitive advantage</li> <li>Insights, (e.g. customer segmentation, predictive analysis)</li> <li>Content curation</li> </ul>
2. Understand the challenges of AI within the business environment.	2.1 Assess customer acceptance and adoption of AI.	<ul> <li>Technology Acceptance Model</li> <li>Diffusion of Innovation</li> <li>Strategic alignment with the brand</li> <li>Customisation</li> <li>Experience</li> <li>AI literacy</li> <li>Managing customer expectations</li> </ul>
	2.2 Assess the ethical implications of AI.	<ul> <li>Ethics and governance (e.g. FATE)</li> <li>Corporate digital responsibility</li> <li>Data protection and privacy</li> <li>Bias &amp; discrimination</li> <li>Algorithmic transparency</li> </ul>

Page 6 of 15

	2.3 Define the skills required to implement AI.	<ul> <li>Communication</li> <li>Collaboration</li> <li>Data –         <ul> <li>Collection</li> <li>Governance</li> <li>Management</li> </ul> </li> <li>Cross-functional teams</li> <li>Using existing email tools to automate responses</li> <li>Cloud computing</li> </ul>
3. Understand how to plan the utilisation of AI in marketing activities.	3.1 Recommend tools to apply AI in the marketing function.	<ul> <li>Ecommerce plugins</li> <li>Chatbots</li> <li>Chat tools</li> <li>Content optimisation tools</li> <li>Content curation tools</li> <li>Customisation</li> <li>Recommendation engines</li> <li>Social media analytics</li> <li>Predictive analytics</li> <li>Programmatic advertising</li> <li>Sentiment analysis</li> </ul>
	3.2 Explain the stages of implementation of AI in a current marketing plan to meet objectives.	<ul> <li>Marketing planning frameworks</li> <li>Gap analysis</li> <li>Marketing challenges and objectives</li> <li>Customer journey stages</li> <li>Personas</li> <li>Content</li> <li>Positive and negative implications of AI</li> <li>Implementation</li> <li>Resource</li> <li>KPIs and metrics</li> <li>Testing</li> <li>Engagement with internal and external stakeholders</li> <li>Accuracy</li> </ul>
	3.3 Assess the impact of the implementation of AI on the marketing function.	<ul> <li>Emerging opportunities</li> <li>Positive and negative indicators</li> <li>Ethical AI</li> <li>Regulation</li> <li>Technology governance</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>Enhanced personalisation</li> <li>Predictive analytics</li> <li>Automation and process optimisation</li> <li>Risks</li> <li>Defining metrics</li> </ul>
Defining metrics

Credits, Total Qualification Time (TQT), Guided Learning Hours (GLH)

The CIM Level 6 Award has been calculated as carrying 10 credits, which equates to approximately 100 hours of Total Qualification Time (TQT) and 80 Guided Learning Hours (GLH).

Credits – Each module has a credit value which indicates how many credits are awarded when a module is completed. The credit value also gives an indication of how long it will normally take to achieve a module or qualification. One credit usually equates to 10 hours of learning.

Guided learning hours (GLH) –The number of hours of teacher-supervised or directed study time required to teach a qualification or unit of a qualification.

Total Qualification Time – is the amount of time expected to take, on average, to complete the learning outcomes of a module to the standard defined by the assessment criteria and includes:

- guided learning hours
- practical and work-based learning
- assessment preparation time and
- assessment time
- supported self-study time

Assessment

The assessment method for this module is an Onscreen assessment utilising Multiple Choice Testing. Assessments are employer-driven, practitioner-based, relevant, and appropriate for business needs.

Module	Assessment Type	Availability
	Onscreen Multiple-Choice Test 45 questions 90 Minutes	6x On-Demand windows (results issued after each close of On-Demand window)

Grading

Module Grading

Grading will be applied to each module as well as to the overall qualification.

Distinction	(D)	80%+
Merit	(M)	70-79%
Pass	(P)	60-69%
Fail	(F)	0-59%

The percentage mark along with the corresponding grade will be issued for each module. To achieve the total qualification each individual module needs to achieve 60% or above.

Entry Requirements

One or more of the following is required to gain entry onto this qualification:

- CIM Level 4 Professional Certificate in Marketing or CIM Level 4 Certificate in Professional Marketing or
- CIM Level 4 Certificate in Professional Digital Marketing.
- Any relevant Level 4 qualification
- An equivalent Level 4 Apprenticeship such as Marketing Executive. CIM will consider other equivalent Marketing apprenticeships.
- An equivalent Level 6 Apprenticeship such as Marketing Manager. CIM will consider other equivalent Marketing apprenticeships.
- Bachelor's or Master's degree, with at least one-third of credits coming from marketing content (i.e. 120 credits in Bachelor's degrees or 60 credits with Master's degrees)
- Professional practice (suggested two years of marketing in an operational role) and diagnostic assessment.

If English is not your first language, you will also need to provide evidence of achieving one of the following English Language qualifications within the last two years: IELTS Academic Module with an overall score of 6.5 (each component pass mark must be 6.0 or above) or Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English grade B or above. CIM will consider other equivalent alternatives.

Accessibility & Inclusion

There may be incidents where candidates may require special consideration and reasonable adjustments to the delivery and assessment of qualifications. In the event of this, Study Centres or candidates should review our Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations policy which is available to candidates on the MyCIM Portal once they are registered.

Reasonable adjustments enable a candidate with additional requirements to demonstrate their knowledge, skills and understanding of the levels of attainment required by the relevant CIM qualification specification. CIM ensures its Reasonable Adjustments Policy aligns with regulatory and legal requirements.

Special Considerations enable a candidate to apply for special consideration to be considered as part of their assessment by way of marks/ percentage of marks for their assessment. The application of Special Consideration focuses on a scenario before or during the assessment that impacted the candidate's ability to perform on the day of an assessment, so they are not disadvantaged by circumstances outside of their control. CIM ensures its Special Considerations Policy aligns with regulatory and Joint Council of Qualifications (JCQ) guidelines.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Exemptions

Further guidance on RPL and exemptions can be found in CIM Exemptions policy.

Membership

Membership with CIM is required to allow candidates to book any assessments and access support and resources. Once you have enrolled with an accredited study centre it is encouraged to join membership at the level that best suits your experience. For example, if you have three years' experience in marketing, the Associate (ACIM) level may be best suited. Check out all membership levels here.

Alternatively, all students studying CIM qualifications can join at the Affiliate Studying level which allows you to book for any future assessments and access student resources such as EBSCO, Senior Examiner Reports and more.

Command Verbs

CIM Level 6 Specialist Award

Command word	Interpretation of command word
Analyse Examine a topic together with thoughts and judgements about it.	Analyse new and/or abstract data and schools of thought and consider alternative solutions and outcomes independently, using a range of appropriate models, principles and definitions. Compare and analyse alternative models using appropriate rationale and criteria.
Appraise Evaluate, judge or assess.	Provide a comprehensive and detailed critique of the subject area demonstrating an in-depth understanding and awareness.
Argue Provide reasoned arguments for or against a point and arrive at an appropriate conclusion.	Engage in debate in a professional manner evidencing a comprehensive understanding and application of key principles.
Assess Evaluate or judge the importance of something, referring to appropriate schools of thought.	Synthesise and assess new and/or abstract information and data in the context of a broad range of problems, using a range of techniques.
Collect Systematically gather a series of items over a period of time.	Systematically gather a series of items over a period of time which demonstrate a critical understanding of the principal theories and concepts of the marketing discipline.
Compare and contrast Look for similarities and differences between two or more factors leading to an informed conclusion.	Synthesise and analyse the similarities and differences between two or more contexts.
Create Bring something into existence for the first time.	Create a range of products of work relevant to marketing that demonstrate originality and creativity. Use a few skills that are specialised, advanced or at the forefront of marketing.
Critically Evaluate As with evaluate but with a critical eye to form a well-informed judgement or conclusion	To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something in a thorough, analytical, and discerning manner, taking into account multiple perspectives, evidence, and implications. Examining the strengths and weaknesses, considering alternative viewpoints, and questioning assumptions or biases to arrive at a well-founded and balanced judgment or conclusion

Write the precise meaning of a word or phrase. Quote a source if possible.       specialisms some of which is informed by or at the forefront of the marketing discipline.         Demonstrate       Explain, using examples.       Explain, using a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings and exemplify points.         Describe       Synthesise and analyse new and/or abstract ideas and information and present a clear description and account of the findings.         Determine       Execute a defined project of research, development or investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action.         Make judgements where data/information is limited.       Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.         Discuss       Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well-defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.         Evaluate       To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something, its validity, reliability, ereative scalards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, adapplicability.         Explain       Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.         Discuss       Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and information evaluated and in the process review its reliability, and applicability.         Evaluate       Apply a wide variety of illustrative e	Define	Define key words and terminology relevant to one or more
DemonstrateExplain a broad range of ideas persuasively and with originality, using a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings and exemplify points.DescribeSynthesise and analyse new and/or abstract ideas and information and present a clear description and account of the findings.DetermineExecute a defined project of research, development or investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action. Make judgements where data/information is limited.DetermineExecute a defined project of research, development or investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action. Make judgements where data/information is limited.DeteriopBuild on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.DiscussProduce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.EvaluateTo assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something, its validity, reliability, ercess review its reliability, validity and applicability.ExplainCritically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments analysing and constdering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Evaluate Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues. <td>Write the precise meaning of a word or</td> <td></td>	Write the precise meaning of a word or
Explain, using examples.using a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings and exemplify points.Describe Give a detailed account of something.Synthesise and analyse new and/or abstract ideas and information and present a clear description and account of the findings.Determine Use research to check or establish something.Synthesise and analyse new and/or abstract ideas and information and present a clear description and account of the findings.Develop Take forward or build on given information.Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.Evaluate Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain (Site examples to make points clear and given item.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points.Explain (Site examples to make points clear and against.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.<	phrase. Quote a source if possible.
Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for.Sindings and exemplify points.Discuss Discus Discuss<	Demonstrate	Explain a broad range of ideas persuasively and with originality,
Give a detailed account of something.information and present a clear description and account of the findings.DetermineExecute a defined project of research, development or investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action. Make judgements where data/information is limited.DevelopBuild on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.DiscussProduce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- lenge and praisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and against.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Dustify Support recommendations, explanationSelectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is imited.Put forward a proposal for a course of set of main characteristics or general against.Produce a structured proposal for planed stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts th	Explain, using examples.
DetermineUse research to check or establish something.Excute a defined project of research, development or investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action. Make judgements where data/information is limited.Develop Take forward or build on given information.Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- language.Evaluate Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability, reliability, reliability, reliability, reliability, neliability, and applicability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Ustify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is imited.	Describe	Synthesise and analyse new and/or abstract ideas and
Use research to check or establish something.investigation to identify evidence to support a course of action. Make judgements where data/information is limited.Develop Take forward or build on given information.Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.Evaluate Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Dustify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is imited.Pulse PulseProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a d	Give a detailed account of something.
something.Make judgements where data/information is limited.Develop Take forward or build on given information.Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing anguage.Evaluate Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Solectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is imited.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is principles, ignoring minor details.Pun PunProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Determine
Take forward or build on given information.and concepts using originality, creativity and insight. Use a combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.Evaluate Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Outline Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is principles, ignoring minor details.Produce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Use research to check or establish something.
information.combination of routine and advanced/specialist skills to develop complex ideas.Discuss Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- 	Develop	Build on detailed knowledge of marketing principles, theories
develop complex ideas.DiscussProduce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well- defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.EvaluateTo assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and against.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Dustify Support recommendations, explanations grainst.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course of Support factor a proposal for a course of Support is proposal for a course of Put forward a proposal for a course of Support is proposal for a course of posal for a course of	Take forward or build on given
Investigate or examine by argument and debate, giving reasons for and against.defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing language.EvaluateTo assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.ExplainPresent complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Identify list the main points or characteristics of a given item.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and sues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and against.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Dustify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	information.
debate, giving reasons for and against.language.EvaluateTo assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.ExplainPresent complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.IdentifyCritically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Discuss	Produce detailed and coherent arguments in response to well-
EvaluateTo assess or judge the value, quality, or significance ofMake an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Identify List the main points or characteristics of a given item.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Investigate or examine by argument and	defined and abstract problems using relevant marketing
Make an appraisal of the worth (or not) of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.something based on specific criteria or standards. It involves analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability. Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles. Identify List the main points or characteristics of a given item.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues. Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit. Justify Support recommendations, explanations against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is principles, ignoring minor details. Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	debate, giving reasons for and against.	language.
of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.analysing and considering various factors to form an opinion or make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.Explain Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Identify List the main points or characteristics of a given item.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Evaluate	To assess or judge the value, quality, or significance of effectiveness, applicability.make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the process review its reliability, validity and applicability.ExplainPresent complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.IdentifyCritically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of ExplainPresent complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.Present complex information evidencing comprehensive knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.IdentifyCritically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.List the main points or characteristics of a given item.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.JustifyCommunicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	of something, its validity, reliability, effectiveness, applicability.	make a decision about the subject being evaluated and in the enlighten, give reasons for.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and issues.Identify List the main points or characteristics of a given item.Critically identify elements of complex marketing problems and 	Explain
List the main points or characteristics of a given item.issues.Illustrate Give examples to make points clear and explicit.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Make plain, interpret and account for, enlighten, give reasons for.	knowledge, understanding and application of key principles.
given item.Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Identify
Give examples to make points clear and explicit.findings supported by references to wider reading to make points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	List the main points or characteristics of a given item.	issues.
explicit.points clear and explicit.Justify Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Illustrate	Apply a wide variety of illustrative examples to underpin
Support recommendations, explanations or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.relevant to marketing.Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Give examples to make points clear and explicit.
or arguments, with valid reasons for and against. Outline Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details. Plan Put forward a proposal for a course of	Justify	Communicate well-structured and coherent arguments against.Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited. Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Support recommendations, explanations	relevant to marketing.
Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.of sources, making judgements where data/information is limited.Plan Put forward a proposal for a course ofProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	or arguments, with valid reasons for and against.
principles, ignoring minor details.limited.PlanProduce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve aPut forward a proposal for a course ofgoal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Outline	Selectively identify valid and relevant information from a range
Put forward a proposal for a course of goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Set out main characteristics or general principles, ignoring minor details.
Put forward a proposal for a course of goal in professional contexts that include a degree of	Plan	Produce a structured proposal for planned stages to achieve a action, usually to achieve a goal. unpredictability.	Put forward a proposal for a course of	goal in professional contexts that include a degree of action, usually to achieve a goal.	unpredictability.

Page 14 of 15

CIM 7. CIM Level 6 Specialist Award in AI Marketing Specification 2024 (Module Specification) V1.2

	Interpret, use and evaluate numerical/financial data to achieve the end goal.
Present Exhibit something to others.	Make formal presentations about specialised topics to informed audiences that include professional peers, senior colleagues and specialists.
Prioritise	determine the order for dealing with according to their relative importance
Provide	Make available for use; supply
Recommend Put forward proposals, supported by a clear rationale.	Produce reliable and valid conclusions and proposals based on abstract data and situation, appropriately contextualised to a marketing context.
Reflect Think carefully about something; consider something; review something that has happened or has been done.	Review and critically analyse a range of complex issues in order to assess reasons for an item's success or failure and/or to identify improvements that can be made.
State Present in a clear brief form.	Present new and/or abstract data in a clear and concise manner, appropriately contextualised to a marketing context.
Summarise Give a concise account of the key points, omit details and examples.	Summarise abstract information, data and contradictory information in a logical and concise manner.